CLUB UPDATES

- For those members competing in Club Champs, Friday 2-4-2, rollup or any other tournament at the club, it would be greatly appreciated if you could turn up early to help put out the flags, put out the water coolers, help mark the greens etc etc. And at the end of play help take flags down, pack away mats etc
- We are pleased to announce that the partnership agreement between Epsom Bowls and Carlton Cornwall Bowls has been renewed. We look forward to the continued relationship between our two clubs.
- We are collecting again for the City Mission – so next time you are grocery shopping please consider getting a few extra items to put in the boxes under the Christmas tree in the clubrooms. Non-perishable items for humans or pets greatly appreciated. Or they also are happy to receive presents for children, just attach a note with age and gender the present is suitable for.
- A timely reminder re our security after the break in – keep your belongings secure and a look out for anything/anyone that looks out of place when at the club.
- We now have a supply of men's bowling trousers (used but clean) stored in the office in case of an emergency split or spill.
- For those members who have paid their subs and not yet collected your handbook – they are in the bar, so you can get it next time you are in.
- Please note that all Club Championship events held during the day will start at 8.30am this season – not 9am as previous years. Attire must be club colours or whites
- Club Champ entry forms – are now in a folder on the match room counter, see your handbook for closing dates
- Club Champ men & women singles – please remember you need to mark for each other. We will also be looking for markers for the Handicap Singles in January.
- Greens update
 - Some club members are still wearing non-regulation shoes – if you are not sure talk to James
 - There is dumping going on and this is causing damage to the greens
- New polo shirts are now available for purchase by all club members.
- We also have a supply of caps and bucket hats available for purchase
- Fire evacuation assembly point – the revised assembly point is now on the far side of B & C greens
- Any Health & Safety concerns – please let Christine, James or a Board member know
- Out of respect to your fellow players – please don't pull out of a tournament at the last minute unless of an exceptional circumstance. This puts pressure on the organiser to find replacements and/or redo the draw. Players continually turning up late shows a lack of courtesy to your fellow players.
- Please respect your fellow club members & players – there is no need to comment on personal appearance or attire. If you feel attire contravenes the tournament regulations, please speak to the umpire/organiser.
- The bar will be closed for club member social drinks on Friday 30 December & Friday 6 January.
- Club office will close on Friday 23 December and re-open Monday 9 January. So if you need to see Christine for anything please get in before the 23rd.

WORLD MASTERS

- Have you entered? Entries close on 31 January 2017
- If you have put your name on the noticeboard as looking for playing partners and have now found them, please update the list
