NEWSLETTER – OCTOBER 2017

FINE RESULTS ON THE GREENS

Congratulations to Darshani Jayasinghe and James Williams for reaching the semi-finals of the Auckland Mixed Pairs, losing to the eventual winners Elizabeth Teiti and Mark Hall 19-17. Carlton Cornwall was well represented in the post-section play. Judi Wong/Scott Jolly, Allen Lockie/Joyce Rugg, Gerard Hulst/Margaret McColl, Nick Krajancic/Bev Crowe all qualified. As did Rebecca Jelley, Wayne Motu, Jill Fraser, Marianne Coldham, Ashleigh Jeffcoat playing with partners from other clubs.

Our New Zealand squad member Selina Goddard went down in a tight tussle to Natarsha Grimshaw 21-17 in the semi-finals of the Auckland Women's Premier Open singles. Jill Fraser, Helen Blick and Estelle Hickey also reached the last 16. Across the bridge at Manly, Graham Skellern lost a tight quarter-final in the tie-breaker to Colin Rogan in the Ivan Kostanich Memorial singles.

We wish Selina all the best in the World Champion of Champions Singles at the St Johns Club in Sydney, played October 30 to November 5. Selina leaves on October 26 and has a hefty programme, playing 11 games of qualifying. Selina plays the champions of Ireland, Kenya, Malaysia, Netherlands, Niue, Norfolk Island, Singapore, Thailand, Wales, Zambia and Zimbabwe – a pretty decent line-up. Selina will do the club proud.
